A RELIC OF THE LOST ARTS .- Over 300 years ago an Indian chief, who ruled over a tribe on the Nopo River, near the the head waters of the Amazon, died. In accordance with the custom of the tribe his head was cut off and the skull split up the back. All the bones were then removed from the head and the aver were taken out. By some proand the eyes were taken out. By some pro-cess known to the Indians of that locality at that time, the head was shrunk to one-tenth of its original proportions, the face retaining its color and the flesh becoming as hard as stone. By reason of the shrinkage the hair became matted so closely together that it is impossible to part it sufficiently to reach the scalp. The head has been sent to New York. The knowledge of how to preserve the heads is not known to the In-dians of the present day; that it is one of the lost arts. The hair upon this miniature head is black and lustrous and about fourteen inches in length. The lips protrude and are punctured with holes, from which hang a bunch of twine. A piece of twine is hang a bunch of twine. A piece of twine is fastened to the top of the head, which was evidently used to hang it up in the dwellings of the Indians. These heads are worshipped by the natives as gods, and they can rarely be induced to part with one. This specimen is the second that has been secured when the condities the column of the Indians. New York...... 6 20 " 3 20 " 10 20 " 9 20 " 10 45 " 9 40 " 10 45 " 9 40 " 10 45 " 10 4 so far, and it is the only one in the United States The other one is in France. The head is valued at $500. The expression on and the cut made in the back of the head and the stitches with which the incisior was closed are plain and distinct. The hair is very fine, and apparently as glossy as when its owner passed over to the majority.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the old. est in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the righty-seven years of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chron cling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshep it has become invaluable

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for the taining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys dail; the benefit of the Associated Press dis patches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day h every portion of our own domain as well a from every part of the babitable globe Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurn and near the city, and this feature will as ever, receive careful attention. Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interes occurring within the bounds of the Com monwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who con sult its advertising columns before purchas ing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily--is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
